While praying for the Prophet pbuh

He was sent as a teacher of the Book.
He was sent to recite the verses to people.

- These verses are recited today in every Jahri Salah (Fajr, Maghrib, Isha) and other times.
- Do we bother to learn and understand them.
- Our standard excuse: "We are busy!" In other words, "Striving to understand the Qur'an thru' which Allah, our Creator, has taught us is not worth our time."
- Astaghfirullah. Is this how we VALUE our Creator and our Prophet pbuh?

While praying for the Prophet pbuh

- Remember his sacrifices and then
- Remember his advice:
"Convey from me even if it is one verse."
- How can we convey it if we:
 - don't even understand it
 - don't know the methods, and wisdom of inviting people (through the stories of the Prophets, peace be upon them).

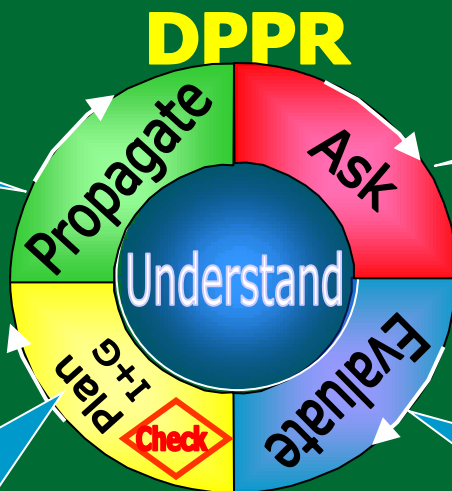

After Understanding his Advice

“Convey from me even if it one verse”.

Convey his teachings to every human on this earth in the best and all possible ways.

O Allah! Help me understand the Book and convey it to others

Listen to the example

- Suppose you were stranded in a desert for 10 days, starving and about to die. A man appears and gives you something to drink and eat.
And then he says: "Take this water to others who are dying of thirst".
And you keep saying (without moving):
"May Allah have mercy on you, may Allah have mercy on you".
- Apply this to the relationship between us and the Prophet pbuh.

Rasulullah (pbuh) has said:

“Convey from me even if it is one verse.”

- How can we convey it if we don't even understand it and don't know the patterns, methods, and wisdom of inviting people through the stories of the prophets, peace be upon them.

After Understanding his Role

Let's take his role as a Teacher.

He was sent as a teacher so we should be his students!

Isn't he a Prophet till the Last Day?

Or his role as a Teacher is over after his death?

Convey his teachings to every human on this earth in the best and all possible ways.

O Allah! Help me become his student!

Allot fixed time slots for studying Qur'an and Hadith.

How much time do I spend studying Qur'an and Hadith? Or do I say, "I am busy," and I don't just care about becoming his student?

Weak Letters

Weak or 'sick' letters (حروف علت). Why 'sick' (عِلَّة)?

Because the sounds of these 3 letters are that of a sick person!! (ooo!, aaa!, eee!).

They are weak because they get 'tired'.

Beauty is that they work in a team!
They keep replacing each other!!!
