

CANBERRA MASJID UPDATE

18 Ramadan 1441 AH / 11 May 2020

Assalam'alaykum Brothers and Sisters,

The Canberra Masjid is now open in a very limited capacity. There will be no scheduled daily congregational services held at the Masjid at this stage. Please read below for the arrangements being availed inshaAllah until further notice:

- There will be no scheduled jama'ah (congregation prayers) held at the Masjid.
- The courtyard and the outdoor shade of the Masjid are available for the worshippers to pray at.
- No more than 10 worshippers are permitted at the Masjid for instances other than funerals.
- The doors will be locked once the capacity of 10 is reached.
- The general opening hours for the Masjid are between 5.30am - 7.30pm, though there will be no access for much of this period.
- The Masjid will be inaccessible at times of the day when no authorised person is available to monitor safety and compliance of the 10-person rule, or for security reasons.
- We humbly seek your co-operation and understanding in the administration of the above arrangements.
- Please keep safe and continue to keep in touch via social media for the latest developments.

Jazakumullahu khairan

Executive Committee - Islamic Society of ACT (ISACT)